Max Marks -40

Class – VIII, English

Time- 1 ½ Hours

1. Read the following passage carefully and answer the following questions by choosing the correct option.8 Marks

This letter is written by great American President Abraham Lincoln to the teacher of his son. Very inspiring and sometime in life you might need to give it to your children to read.

My son starts school today. It is all going to be strange and new to him for a while and I wish you would treat him gently. It is an adventure that might take him across continents. All adventure probably include wars, tragedy and sorrow. To live this life will require faith, love and courage. So dear Teacher, will you please take him by his hand and teach him things he will have to know, teaching him- but gently, if you can. Teach him that for every enemy there is a friend. He will have to know all men are not just, that all men are not true. But teach him also that for every scoundrel there is a hero that for every crooked politician, there is a dedicated leader.

Teach him if you can that 10 cents earned is of far more value than a dollar found. In school, teacher, it is far more honorable to fail than to cheat. Teach him to earn how to gracefully lose, and enjoy winning when he does won. Teach him to be gentle with people, tough with touch people. Sheer him away from envy if you can and teach him the secret of quiet laughter. Teach him if you can-how to laugh when he is sad, teach him there is no share in tears. Teach him there can be glory in failure and despair in success. Teach him to scoff at cynics.

Teach him if you can the wonders of books, but also give him time to ponder the extreme mystery of birds in the sky, bees in the sun and flowers on a green hill. Teach him to have faith in his own ideas, even if everyone tells him they are wrong.

Try to give my son the strength not to follow the crowd when everyone else is doing it. Teach him to listen to everyone, but teach him also to filter all that he hears on a screen of truth and take only the good that comes through.
