Maharaja Rudra pratap ruled over Magadh. One day, he was riding along the road with his ministers. Suddenly, a stone hit him on the forehead causing a deep cut, drops of blood fell from his forehead on the clothes. His ministers run after the man and caught him. "Why did you throw the stone at me?" the Maharaja asked.

The man said, "I throw the stone at an apple on a tree, your Majesty. Unfortunately it fell on you, kindly forgive me."

The ministers were surprised for the Maharaja did not punish the poor man. He put his hands inside the pocket, took out the gold coin and gave it to the poor man.
